“全球华侨华人博物馆协作项目”由英国威斯敏斯特大学HOMELandS（移民、散居、语言和空间研究中心）与新加坡南洋理工大学华裔馆联合设立，并得到AHRC（英国艺术和人文研究委员会）以及新加坡南洋理工大学华裔馆经费资助，旨在达成以下目标：

- 一 建立、促进和加强以收藏和展览华侨华人展品为特色的博物馆之间的全球联系。
- 二 交流博物馆在策展、文物保护、公共服务和教育方面的经验和想法，以更好地了解 and 介绍华侨华人的历史，促进华侨华人在当地社会的发展及与祖（籍）国的联系和交流。
- 三 加强博物馆之间在展览、讲座、论坛、研讨会及其它类型活动等方面的合作。
- 四 推动“华侨华人博物馆学”或与华侨华人相关的博物馆研究，为华侨华人的跨学科研究做出贡献。

在成功举办全球华侨华人博物馆线上公共讲座的基础上，项目将于2024年7月26日于新加坡南洋理工大学主办线下论坛。此次论坛将邀请多位来自新加坡、中国、日本、澳大利亚、菲律宾、马来西亚、印尼等国家的博物馆负责人、研究者发表演讲、分享讨论。

The “Global Diasporic Chinese Museums Network Initiative” was jointly established by the HOMELandS (Hub for Migration, Exiles, Languages, and Spaces), the University of Westminster, UK and the Chinese Heritage Centre, Nanyang Technological University, Singapore (NTU Singapore). It is funded by the AHRC (Arts and Humanities Research Council) in the UK and the Chinese Heritage Centre at NTU Singapore, with the aim of achieving the following objectives:

- 1 To establish, facilitate, and strengthen worldwide connections between museums which feature artifacts and exhibitions pertaining to Chinese diaspora.
- 2 To exchange experiences and ideas of how museums engage in curating, preservation, public engagement, and education, for a better understanding and promotion of diasporic Chinese histories and to facilitate the development of diasporic Chinese communities in the host countries and their cultural exchange with China.
- 3 To enhance cooperation between museums for exhibitions, seminars, forum, conferences, and other formats of events.
- 4 To promote “diasporic Chinese museology”, or museum studies on Chinese diaspora, and contribute to the interdisciplinary research of Chinese diaspora.

Building upon the successful online public talk series on global diasporic Chinese museums, the project will host an offline workshop at NTU Singapore on July 26, 2024. This workshop will invite several museum directors and researchers from countries such as Singapore, China, Japan, Australia, the Philippines, Malaysia, and Indonesia, to give speeches and engage in relevant discussions.
